Drawing Salon

National Gallery of Art 2015–2016

Drawing Workshops

Fridays 10:30–1:00

Saturdays and Sundays 1:00–3:30

Join us for sketching and conversation in the galleries. Led by practicing artists and museum educators, this series of workshops integrates art history and studio art practices. The workshops are designed for all skill levels; beginning and advanced participants are welcome.

This program is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required due to limited space. Reserve a space online at www.nga.gov/drawingsalon. Registration opens at noon on the Monday prior to the start of a new topic. All drawing materials are provided. Ages 18 and over. For more information, e-mail drawingsalon@nga.gov.

#NGADrawingSalon

The 2015–2016 Drawing Salon season is made possible with the generous support of Faber-Castell in commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the National Gallery of Art. Faber-Castell, founded in 1761, is the world's leading manufacturer of wood-cased pencils.
